ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Recognition and appreciation are extended to those who served in various capacities to write, edit, and produce the Resources for Standards and Assessment in Business Education document. Valuable contributions were made by business educators and members of the High Schools Initiatives Office of the California Department of Education. Special thanks are extended to Joyce McLean, Consultant, High School Initiatives Office who served as grant monitor for the Business Education Resource Consortium and edited this document. Thanks are also extended to Bernie Norton, Program Manager of the High School Initiatives Office for his leadership in Business Education.

Chris King and her staff at the Stanislaus County Office of Education developed the Networking Resource Binder for Business Educators that was the inspiration and provided a format for this document. In addition, WestEd Laboratories granted permission to use materials from their Career-Technical Assessment Program (C-TAP) Guide. The support and assistance of these individuals and organizations have contributed greatly to the quality of this document and are very much appreciated.

Hopefully, you will find these materials helpful in developing standards-based curriculum and assessments in Business Education.
